SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17TH, 1860

Worshipped at Hedding's Rev. Dr. Lewis preached on Gen. 22. He did not preach as the old preachers use to preach on the text but strove to be ^{as} much better but oh how the house was warm for the first time had to warm his feet & hands, and the daughter changed her seat for a warmer one and so did I

Evening Rev. Dr. George P. E. preached on "He that is faithful in a little shall have authority

I have waited to see William Taylor - but no Taylor came - he has been and I fully believe he is out of at least $1500. Adios but money - May God forgive him if possible I have spent a little time in Court room - Peters was clean and yet I think he might have been guilty of stealing the leather.

It was a sorrowful night I slept none after I felt One sorrow after another which is very afflictive.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14TH, 1860.

Still pleasant and dry - Tom, digging in & at Chat. Doing all don't amount to much.
4 1/2 M. Oh how tired I am I have just come out of the potato hole Tom and I have taken out 27 bu potatoes all fine. I had expected Esyr Cole to take me to the weather but I am disappointed, he is very kind has let me have a very good sword day. Chat & Tom are digging potatoes - planting gardening and doing all sorts of work.

SUNDAY, MAY 27TH, 1890.

Bright beautiful morning still at home I should be away. Last evening heard of the death of my nephew Wm Bispe of Miss? cut down in the strength of manhood but he has gone I doubt not to join his sainted Mother in brighter worlds I sent bill to H. S. Hollister sent one to Julius Bispe I ever preached on the parable of the two sons and said he would not do it was sharp keen thing it cut me somewhat

Dear God I feel with you, I feel with you
