 When sweet harvest of the crop
 Who counted all things here but loss
 To miss thy Saviour's smile Didst thou cease thy fair retreat
 And leave that sweet divinity sweet
 To visit us awhile
 Had health that gave thy cheek its bloom Dusted thou to thy tomb
 Did sickness guide thy way
 Were all thy radiant hopes decayed Thy earnest friends to lonely ground that hollowed ship with that faded care was worn about & returned to God
