Very pleasant heard Rev Mr. Moon in Congregational Church W. M. Eld Starr was present made opening prayer text Joh 8:12

This morning about 10 AM while sleeping in my room I was remarkably pleased I had been earnestly engaged in prayer in the night and morning & somewhat suddenly and unexpectedly my soul was wonderfully filled joy and comfort Oh how timely while battling with cares and worldly cares

MONDAY, AUGUST 23, 1875.

Pleasant warm dry day we are suffering for rain & I do most devoutly pray that our Heavenly Father will send us refreshing Showers of rain

Some carelessness or bad luck has dropped a small board into my tub well which wedged one side the bucket I had much trouble 1st to learn what it was 2^d to get the bucket up - could see down 27 ft by mirror & bright sun saw the board and lay a cord attached to a timber loosened it drew up the bucket the board floats on water does but little harm

TUESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1875.

$20 notes - Johnson took $12 gave $12 to Corleff Cole $300

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1875

The most Cheaful morning for long time as we were blest with powerful showers during the night Now 9 AM still rains
This may be unfortunate to hay makers who have thousands of tons ready to stack but for the heavy winds might have been secured - and yet we may have lost the rain sent into and diff. of #63 to Lophmore

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1875

Pleasant Loander Hills & I started for Edge Cole but met him & returned to Highland -

This is not as it should be - but

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1875.

Pleasant but quite cool we expect Mr. Barrows from Iowa to preach this morning if the storm is made warm -

The hour was warm and he did preach - we left Rom. 8-18 It was a master performance Two distinct features of the text. Suffering & Glory 1. Physical. Mental. Spiritual 2. Glory partly here but fully in Heaven. his style was pure and clear. his illustrations - very happy and impressive - all were felt with great force.

Evening Mrs. Smith lectured in P. Chapel on the interior of the Home in Leavenworth.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1875.

him 20 cts.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1875.

Pleasant fine day Sister Beavers preached at 11 this morning "The fields are white already for the harvest" It was timely and very good she quide above the necessity

In the evening she gave a Lecture to a crowded house in Church reform It was a master production
- on - it was logical, pathetic it moved the mass of mind present

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1875.

called to see D. Cole went to his father they agree to come to Highland town now to settle about the Deane Farm - Tobias is downright wicked Geo. Proctor will buy the Deane place if he can get immediate possession

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1875.

Cold, but pleasant.
Abr. Cole and Tobias's son came over.
Rather than litigation and firing Lawyers I gave up a joint note of $800 and hit nearly two years ~~ago~~

I did give B. A. Seaver $5 for his assistance.
Gave Geo. L. Brown an article for Docd of the Dove Farm. He gives $2250 - $250 down the rest in five equal annual payments.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1875.

Pleasant. I called on Eli Evans simply asked him the No. of his cemetery lot.
I suppose he thought it was a dun - but not so - I am the Treasurer and wanted to get him a Docd. He was very passionate and ungentleman - Poor fellow - an object of pity?

Sent Dove $20 to send to had left Article between Clark & Seaver with Leonard Smith Esq.

Always meeting at our house this evening Mrs. Mary Barber took an active part. She is smart and good. God bless her.

excellent Lady -

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1875.

Pleasant day

Heard Rev. M. Stearns Preached in Congregation Oh on Rom 8:13. it was good His theme the evidences to ourselves and to the world that that we are Christians

Mr. Hoopsman held forth this evening but oh what a profession once taken it as a whole xxx it was any thing but Christ like in manner and spirit -

I am disgusted with him as a man much more as a minister and still more as a Christian Gentleman =

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1875.

Cold but pleasant morning = how great a fire a little matter kindleth? a broken sash -

I made letter to Sims Wife "Satan reigns it seems that is his hour and the power of darkness -

Oh that the spirit of Truth and Righteousness may soon prevail - Oh God hasten the time -

It continues to grow cold. I prepared for by putting things in the cellar -

We have had a long pleasant season for discussing vigorously but many have not improved except slightly so with the season of grace?

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1875.

Froze hard last night mercury 8° above zero afternoon Englehart & Henry Houghton helped me fix the well wood shed at Cunningham House

Prof. Burke gave a Lecture in the M. E. C. on the origin or descent of Woman. It was tedious satirical & ironical which brought down a rain of laughter.

On the whole it was by no means profitable to the souls progress in the divine life.

Let Dr. Whitcomb have a similar order on Smith for Rent

Wis. - #2³⁰ May Iowa
Point Jan 31⁰⁵

(Sparks & Joshua Rittenhouse called pa but #12 and #2²⁵ for extension p. m. until Sep. 15/76 This should be on the 25th)

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1875.

Pleasant fine morning

Sparks and Joshua Rittenhouse called. Rittenhouse Hocue signed the $100 note as security for Sparks yet R. is the principle and the one to pay it.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1875

Fine day

Harold kept his bed most of the day.
I attended S. School
Our school is by no means managed as it should be. I know of no place in the M. E. Church that Bro. He can be of any use. I do not think he can ever make a Parson of any profit to the C. or to souls of men.

Evening service in M. E.
Rev. Hoffman held forth on What think ye of Christ As I understand this is Col 2 He is Man

MONDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1875

More cold ⁽¹⁾ above I find my hands and heart full
I pray for grace to help in time of need

Had Devor called

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1875.

Remarkably pleasant Hawcut quite unwell had many calls Evening Rev. Mr. May Congregationalist called young man of some promise - Br. L. Wells and Wife also made evening call

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1875.

Still warm Mr. Moore Esq. from Leavenworth sent for me after some talk I saw his object was to know something respecting the justness of Ella Horvick's pension

I said nothing that could in the least do her harm

Sam^l Springer called he took up ^{note} dated Apr 24/74 and gave new note 7/12/75 dated 24th Inst - 10 per cent

Sat with L. Smith Esq 4/17/75 on his note 6th Inst leaving due 6/3/75

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1875.

Warm pleasant day
6th Cabere Zero
Harriet some better Paid Dove box Wright Pills and Brewer's Treacher 3.0

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1875.

Dark rainy day & Mr. Hubbard came to #20
I have appreciated to preach this evening The evening quite unpropitious dark and misty - yet quite a goodly number in attendance I preached on 1 Pet 4-7 - End of all things at hand &c - Rev. Andrew Rev. Robinson and others Took part Rev. Dr. Hoffman Took lead of the meeting The remembrance until the new year was wished us a very pleasant profitable time - And now
And now I bid farewell to this little rock and shall myself only stay for the winter's quietness through the year
