ALL LETTERS OF INQUIRY TO

FIRE PROOF WAREHOUSE ATCHISON,

ELECTA, wife of Nathan Jewett, deceased, died in Brooklyn, Pa., Feb. 23, 1865, aged 75 years.
 Her home, for many years, was the pleasant, welcome home and preaching place for the faithful minister who passed that way. She was sound in judgment, liberal in sentiment, charitable and benevolent in practice; and the christian community and society to which she belonged, have sustained a loss which cannot be supplied in many years. Her physical energies and mental faculties were remarkably strong to the last, and in the dying hour she seemed to fully realize the solemnity and greatness of the change through which she was passing, and said her divine Redeemer was with her to the end.
 Brooklyn, March 20, 1865. A. C. SPERRY.

THE lecture of Mrs. Nichols, on "Spiritualism," delivered before the Academy of Science and Art last night, was well attended. Mrs. Nichols has been a medium, and in her critique on the subject spoke from actual experience. The lady is a fine lecturer and a most able, versatile writer.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1876.

Monday 31 Puttee Zero for more than 30 hours we have had a constant drizzle freezing upon the water makes it difficult for Old People to get about Our New Watch night was well attended - very well considering the weather Rev.
 Bro. Hoffman bid finely - Harriet is really sick with bad cold
 A company of Bill regiments occupied Wm. E. C. this evening. This I think is not right and yet it gave my confidence they had to you line of measure -

SUNDAY, JANUARY 2, 1876.

Fine morning
Rev. Mr. Cannon preached in the M. E. Church this morning
Text: "Humble in Honor and be Earthly"
in the Church its Devotion as in families & Ministry it was good cost and I none except

B. D. Leaver.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1876.

Very cold blustering night
This morning 11° above zero
I send answer to Lacoock that it is no settlement with Shuman unless he pays all cost except B. D. Leaver.

Beule has sent his acc^t to Esq. Leaver for collectⁿ I have pd in full and and get Shuff receipt I know not what he can do unless there is of the cost in the Flynn
I see otherwise that I know nothing of.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1876.

Very cold night. This morning only 5° above. I am fearful it will be hard on the fruit. D. A. Leaver & I met Exr. Leaver at his office. Saw the life Beech Lind. He seasons me off $8. It altogether different from what he & McQuilkin have always stated - it not included in my receipt as we can make out - I think I have a non-suit on two grounds - I never employed Beech.

I the Sheriff who did employ him should have added it to the Court for Diff. to pay.
